MASSING FLEETS

United States Not Involved Unless Territory Is Seized By Either of the Powers.

(Special By Scripps-McRae.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28.—It is claimed in official circles that England and Germany will act jointly with a large force of warships to try and collect the debts due to their citizens by Venezuela and that with this in view they are massing their ships. To Seize Custom Houses.

It is said that the two nations plan the seizure of the custom houses and by collecting the taxes pay themselves the sum due them. President Castro it is said will declare the ports open and free trade with the world. This will leave nothing for them to collect.

May Have War.

War is expected in some quarters but this would not involve the United States unless Germany or England seized Venezuelan land which would then violate the Monroe doctrine.

TOBACCO DEALERS ANXIOUS FOR HELP

Some are Hiring the Girls Away From Houses by Telephone Already.

The ladies throughout the city are up in arms against a certain tobacco buyer in this city to secure help for his warehouse.

Many of the ladies expect to lose their female help when the warehouses open, but they object to having their servant called up by telephone and hired out of their kitchens by flatterers of large wages.

One Case.

One Third ward lady said her servant was called to the telephone this morning by this tobacco dealer, and told that she could make eight or nine dollars a week by coming to work in his warehouse. The girl at once accepted the offer and notified the lady that she was going to leave at once for the job in the warehouse.

Object to Methods.

The ladies say it is bad enough to have the girls go when the tobacco season opens, without having them hired out of their homes by telephone before the season is fairly opened.

CHILDREN START FATAL FIRE

Mrs. Rose O'Brien Is Burned to Death at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Rose O'Brien of 835 Kinckelknecht avenue was burned to death in a fire started by her children, who were playing with matches and coal oil. Had it not been for the heroism of Mrs. John Bechtel, a neighbor, the four children would also have been burned to death. Mrs. Bechtel rushed through the flames and carried them to the street, one at a time. She was severely burned. The fire brought to the attention of the authorities one of the worst cases of destitution they have had to deal with in a long time. There was not an ounce of food in the house, and no money with which to buy it. The husband and father is said to have deserted his family several weeks ago, but Mrs. O'Brien had carefully kept her troubles from the neighbors.

An eruption similar to this took place seven months after the great disaster of 1812. It destroyed the Trespe estate on the leeward side.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 28.—The purchase of millions of acres of Mexican territory along the border of the United States for the purpose of creating one of the largest cattle raising ranches in the world is the result of recent negotiations of American capitalists, with Utah men as principals.

TARIFF CAUSES MUCH TROUBLE

Motion to Vote on Measure Leads to A Hot Debate and A Scene of Disorder.

(Special By Scripps-McRae.)

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Scenes of great uproar and disorder resulted in the reichstag today from a motion introduced by the leaders of the center, national liberal and the two conservative parties, providing for taking a vote on the tariff as a whole.

Baron Kardoff offered the motion, which was greeted with laughter by the socialists and radicals, whereupon the baron remarked:

"Gentlemen you have driven us to this course."

The socialist speakers and Herren Richter and Barth contended that the motion was contrary to the rules of the house. President Von Ballestren admitted that he was in doubt on the question raised, and declined to decide on the admissibility of the motion, leaving the matter for the house to decide after a full discussion.

During the debate on the rules the socialists created great disorder. Herr Antick and others shouted "Pickpockets!" and Herr Ulrich, who repeatedly interrupted the speakers, was called to order three times, the conservatives shouting:

"Put him out."

Further discussion was postponed until tomorrow.

HERMAN GIRLOFF SAVED FROM DEATH

Heeded His Premonition of Danger and Escaped With an Injured Hand.

Had it not been for a premonition of impending danger which he could not understand, but which influenced him to shut down one of the two machines which he was running at the Janesville Barb Wire works, Herman Girloff would have been instantly killed this morning.

As it was he escaped with severe injuries to his left hand which, near as can be determined, was caught in the revolving barbed wire, being manufactured by the other machine.

Hand Badly Cut.

Dr. M. A. Cunningham, to whose office the injured man was taken, dressed the wounds and believes that he will be able to save the entire hand although the little finger was nearly severed and the one next to it was cut to the bone. The middle finger was badly cut and scratched.

Was Knocked Down.

The accident occurred this morning at the Barb Wire Works where Mr. Girloff is employed and no one seems to know just exactly how it happened. Even Mr. Girloff himself cannot explain it. He says that he was running the two wire machines when suddenly he felt that something was going to happen and yielding to the impulse he shut off one of the machines.

An instant later he was struck on the hip by something and knocked down, falling over against the idle machine. He believes that his hand caught caught in the wire on the running machine and was cut on the barbs.

His Theory.

Mr. Girloff cannot understand what struck him, but he thinks that the wire must have caught in the machine and that the automatic release failed to work. He is confident that had he had both machines running he could not have escaped instantaneous death and is congratulating himself that he heeded the warning which came to him.

TARIFF REVISION AND NEEDLESS LAW MAKING

The country can ill afford a tariff tinkering congress. It has had experience in this direction to warrant the assertion that nine business men out of ten are opposed to dragging the tariff as an issue to the front. There is no necessity for doing so at this time, and the statesmen who are zealously preaching the revision of the present schedule of import duties should be called off without delay. The task of patching up a tariff bill may appear to them an agreeable duty, fraught with visions of political distinction and reward. The merchant, the manufacturer and the banker are not seeing things of this nature. They know that tariff revision means disturbance and uncertainty, and that it will interrupt the even current of commerce. The Dingley tariff law is not perfect—in some cases it is distinctly bad—but putting the good against the evil, the average is a little better than anything which it displaced, and certainly it is superior to several of the proposed plans which are offered to displace it.

The country has had too much law making on commercial and similar lines. A distinct feeling of relief is always evident when congress adjourns, for no one can foresee what may grow out of a session where political exigency is considered before business utility. In this connection the tentative programme of the administration, or the programme at least, outlined by the administration's friends, is to be deplored. We are to have, if stories be true, a deluge of anti-trust legislation, not to mention other measures of an alleged corrective nature. It goes without saying that a policy of this nature will not improve the country's prospects, financially or otherwise. Anti-trust laws on the statute books are not enforced for the simple reason that no violation can be proved. That congress is willing to go further in an attempt to reach large corporations is uncertain, but from the present outlook something of the sort will be attempted. The trust hunting habit is growing beyond all bounds of reason. The property of the United States today is the result, in part, of brainy corporation management. If we put together low transportation rates, skill in production and economy in distribution, we have in a sentence the secret of the country's advance. Yet so far from recognizing this fact, and attempting to encourage a still higher degree of efficiency, the average law maker appears to feel that he must pose as a David before the Goliath. He wants to strike down the tariff because the duties imposed on imports, from his point of view, benefit the trusts, forgetting that even were this true, the first to suffer would be the small manufacturer, who is without the resources of his larger competitor; he is anxious to curb combinations, oblivious to the plain fact that combinations have encouraged the widest production and distribution in history; he feels that his restraining hand must be laid on railroads which are working out their inevitable and certain destiny in merging independent links into a homogeneous whole; he is persuaded that the function of federal government is to interfere with the rights of man to make private contracts, and to control his property, be it capital or labor, in accordance with the privileges won after centuries of development and guaranteed by the constitution of the United States; he creates commissions to harry the railroads, and without doubt sanction others to supervise industries of a larger nature. This exercise of power by law making bodies is a serious factor in our present life. The business man is not clamoring for new laws, nor is the intelligent citizen seeking to put further restraints on commerce and industry. The anti-trust, anti-railway, clamor is superficial. It represents a wrong purpose, and it entails most serious consequences in the future. The entire country is prosperous, and the benefits accruing through quickened trade impulses are being shared by a larger percentage of population than at any time in the past. The leave-well-enough-alone policy may not afford the opportunities for successful lime light posing that are developed in a theatrical campaign against imaginary wrongs, but the man who sticks to the conservative middle course will be a larger figure in history, both immediately and remote, than he who sacrifices judgment to love of evanescent public applause.—The Financier.

The New York paper is sound on the proposition of tariff tinkering. If congress has any notion of disturbing the present prosperous conditions, it is about time for the people's representatives to size up the situation, and discover where all the free trade clamor is coming from.

The farmers are not demanding it, for there was never a time in the history of the nation when the farmer was as prosperous as he is today. He sells his products at good prices to a home market that is able to consume the bulk of his productions. Labor is not clamoring for it because it is so thoroughly occupied at good wages, that it is satisfied. The business man don't want it, for he is content to saw wood, and let well enough alone.

Where does all this commotion come from anyway, and what do the parties represent who are howling for tariff revision?

In the first place it starts with democracy. The party is out in the cold and wants to get in. It hopes to gain admission by letting down the bars of protection. The country is not suffering for another spasm of democratic rule, and the party is not entitled to serious consideration.

Then there is an element in the republican party, that is a little too wise for this generation, that would like to upset things, in the interests of theoretical reform. It is largely an educated element, top heavy with ideas of political economy "as she is taught." A small element, but persistent, and ready to form an alliance with anything that comes along. Men who pride themselves on their independence in politics, and who are so pure that they could be translated any day, without loss to this mundane sphere.

Then there are a few politicians of the Babcock-Cummings stripe, who combine ambition with reform virtue.

These are the three classes that are denouncing trusts, and clamoring for tariff revision. It might be well for these gentlemen to remember, that it is about as dangerous to tinker with the tariff, as it is to tinker with the currency. The result is either case is to destroy confidence, and paralyze industries and business.

So far as trusts and combines are concerned, the survival of the fittest is the only law that ever governs business, and the law will continue to govern, after every theory is exhausted to legislate it out of existence. The age is progressive, and the people are generally satisfied with conditions.

FREIGHT CONGESTION

Loaded cars are sidetracked for thirty miles outside of Pittsburgh, because of the lack of motive power to handle them, and 60,000 factory employees representing a daily wage of $162,000 are idle, because raw material cannot be transported for their use.

It is estimated by the general superintendent of a Chicago-New York line, that 35,000 more freight cars are needed, and a proportional number of locomotives.

Inter-State Commerce commission publishing some interesting statistics on railroad equipment. There are today in use 36,000 locomotives and the same number of passenger cars. The various railroads own nearly 1,500,000 freight cars, and yet the supply is totally inadequate. One of the trunk lines refused to carry any more grain between Chicago and New York, until the present congestion is relieved.

While these conditions are annoying to the roads, and a serious inconvenience to the public, they speak volumes concerning the resources and prosperity of the country.

The Booker T. Washington episode that created so much of a sensation when it was reported that he had dined at the White House, is exploded in the air, by the statement recently made by General Marcus J. The president is too large a man to be influenced or annoyed by the gossip of his middle-some constituents.

The state of Indiana proposes to find out whether the governor has authority to remove a sheriff for alleged incompetency. John S. Dudley holds the office at Sullivan. ## HAVE EXHAUSTED OLD GRAVEL PIT

FORCED TO SHIFT CABLES AT KNICKERBOCKER WORKS.

TWIN LAKE MEN DID WORK

Foreman Nagal Returns From Oconowoc—Have Been Busy at the Crusher Plant.

At the Knickerbocker ice company's plant the output of sand and gravel is rapidly resuming its former magnitude. For some weeks past the works have been running below the capacity while repairs have been going on, but the improvements have now been completed, and the work is going on busily. The foreman of the local plant has just returned today from Oconowoc where he has been on business since Wednesday. The Knickerbocker company has another plant in that city.

Pit Worked Out
The recent slack in the output of sand and gravel each day has been caused, by the necessity of changing the location of the cables on which the steam shovel runs. The pit from which gravel has been secured ever since last spring, during which time ten carloads have been shipped each day, has at last become exhausted, and the cables have been shifted to allow access to a new gravel pit.

Steam Shovel Moved
The work of shifting the cables was done by the same gang of men who built the building used by the plant. They are in the general employ of the Knickerbocker company, and came here from Twin lakes, where another Knickerbocker plant is located. The men returned to Twin lakes two or three days ago.

Complete Equipment
Ten hours makes up a day's work at the works nowadays but almost every evening lights can be seen in the structure where repairs are going on. A third boiler has recently been added to the equipment, making the chance of delay in that direction slight but the pumps cause more trouble and often lead to an unavoidable hour of inactivity.

Minor Delays Frequent
During the summer several minor accidents have occurred, and one or two which were rather more serious. The last was the loss of a finger of one of the employees about a month ago. The season will be continued up to the last day which the weather will allow of work. An enormous business has been done since the works were opened and the output will not be shut off until it is unavoidable.

TRAINMEN'S PARTY BEST OF SEASON

Fully Three Hundred Couples Attended the Party at the Hall Was Beautifully Decorated.

The party given Wednesday evening at Assembly hall by the members of Rock River lodge, No. 210, B. of R. T. was a success in every particular. The hall was handsomely decorated and illuminated and the three hundred couples present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

The trainmen left nothing undone that would add to the pleasure of the guests and were continually on the lookout to see that all had a first class time.

The hall was beautifully decorated with smilax which was stretched from the center piece about the chandelier and was also draped along the side walls. Electric lights were arranged among the side wall decorations and helped to show the beauty of the decorations.

The balcony was also banked with smilax and large palms placed at either end gave it a truly tropical aspect. The music stand was one mass of green, smilax and palms interspersed with electric lights and was truly an artistic creation.

The committees that had the party in charge and looked out for the pleasure of the guests were.

Arrangement—D. P. Davey, M. F. Dulin, John Joerg.
Floor—Fred Dixon, D. J. Barry, J. J. Dulin, D. P. Davey, Thos. Brennan, Chas. Richter.

Reception—Every member of the lodge.

FEW CASES IN POLICE COURT

ONE QUARRELSOME FAMILY AND SEVERAL COSTS SETTLED.

LIGHT DAY AFTER A HOLIDAY

Several Cases Brought By W. T. Vankirk Are Adjourned or Dismissed.

In the municipal court this morning Chief Hogan had Joe Peters, a German, up for being drunk and disorderly and abusing his wife. After considerable argument on the part of Peters and his wife in which each tried to make out that the other was the black and sheep, they decided they could get along together and left for home.

Cost Cases

The court had several civil cases on the docket which were disposed of for the present. In W. T. Vankirk vs. R. E. and R. L. Horn, an adjournment of a week was taken. Vankirk vs. Joseph Bishop was also adjourned for a week and Vankirk vs. Herman Topp was settled and dismissed.

Case Adjourned

In the case of D. M. Barlass vs. Mary Johnson ten pleadings in the case were filed and an adjournment was taken. This action was brought to recover about $300 for the care of the late Mrs. Barbara Box, during her last illness. Mrs. Johnson is a daughter of Mrs. Box.

WERE MARRIED ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Marriage of Mrs. Margaret Bennett and George E. Sanger Occurred Yesterday Afternoon.

In the presence of a company of about thirty relatives and a few intimate friends, Mrs. Margaret E. Bennett, of this city and George E. Sanger, of Beloit, were happily married yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at 1:30 at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Hanson, 113 Terrace street.

Although entirely lacking in ostentation, it was one of the prettiest of home weddings. The parlors and dining room were beautified with an abundance of immense snowy chrysanthemums and graceful trailers of smilax, the color scheme being entirely white and green.

Feasting Follows Ceremony

Rev. J. T. Henderson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was the officiating clergyman and the bride and groom entered the parlors unattended. The bride was becomingly attired in her handsome traveling suit of dark blue cloth.

The extension of congratulations followed the ceremony and then an elaborate Thanksgiving dinner was served. The menu included all the vicissitudes which tradition has connected with the day and the feast was served in four courses. Misses Clara and Louise Hanson, sisters of the bride, Miss Mabel Best and Miss Mabel Rustad had charge of the tables.

A Well-Known Couple

The bride is one of Janesville's most estimable ladies and her departure from this city where she has always made her home will be sincerely regretted by a host of friends. She is possessed of that rare womanliness which makes acquaintance with her a delight and the new home over which she will preside will have a gracious mistress.

The groom is a Beloit business man being the proprietor of a large grocery store. He as well as his wife, is prominent in church circles and philanthropic work and he is held in the highest esteem by all who know him.

To Live in Beloit

Mr. and Mrs. Sanger left yesterday afternoon for Chicago where they will spend a few days before going to their home in Beloit. They were the recipients of many handsome presents which will serve as pleasant reminders of their Janesville friends.

Out Of Town Guests

Among the wedding guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett, and Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett of Lima; Miss Mary Hanson, Gladys, Louise and Roy Sanger, of Beloit; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hanson and Miss Hannah Hanson, of Chicago.

MANY ATTEND SERVICES

Interesting Revival Meetings Are Being Held at the Baptist Church.

The evangelistic services, which are being conducted this week at the Baptist church as a continuation of the work by Charles N. Hunt, the lawyer-evangelist, are being largely attended and the addresses by the Rev. R. M. Vaughan, the pastor, are attracting earnest attention. Last evening the church parlors were filled with an interested audience, the topic from which Rev. Vaughan spoke being, "I will be 'How to Know We Are Saved.'" The service will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the large chorus will sing.

FEAR MANY PERSONS ARE DEAD

Strikes a Broken Rail on High Embankment While Running at Fast Clip and Four Sleeping Cars Plunge Down the Embankment.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 28.—The St. Louis flyer on the Big Four railroad, which left here at five minutes before midnight, is in the ditch half a mile west of Avon, thirty miles west of Indianapolis, and it is feared a large number of lives have been lost.

The train consisted of eight sleepers, and according to reports received by the railroad officials four of them are piled in a heap in a cornfield.

Strikes Broken Rail.

The train struck a broken rail while running at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

The place where the wreck occurred is at the center of a "high fill," the embankment being thirty feet high.

A message was received here from Danville asking for all possible medical aid, and eight or ten physicians were summoned.

A telephone message from Danville stated that all available physicians from there had been called to the wreck. No word has been received further than that four sleepers were at the bottom of the embankment.

Many May Be Dead.

In railroad circles at Danville the belief was general that the loss of life must necessarily be heavy.

The train consisted of a sleeper from Cleveland, which came in over the Big Four at midnight, another sleeper from Cleveland, which arrived earlier in the night, four cars from Cincinnati, two of which were express cars, a combination and baggage car, and a day coach.

The train was almost filled with passengers when it left here, the travel on the train from this city being unusually heavy.

Officials Hurry to Scene.

The first word of the wreck was received from the trainmaster at Mattoon, Ill. The Brightwood wrecking train was ordered out and two special cars were made up to follow. These special cars contained Superintendent J. C. Van Winkle of the Big Four and eight or ten physicians.

General Superintendent Van Winkle said as soon as he reached the Union station to leave for the scene of the wreck:

"It looks pretty bad to me. There must be a good many hurt or they would not want so many physicians."

From Horror of Sudden Death.

Terribly Battered,
Severe Pain.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
Cured Completely.

When your heart is right you are unconscious that you have one; when anything wrong you know it at once—if you take heed. The heart warns by shortness of breath, palpitation, fluttering, hard beating, pain in chest, left side, or between shoulder blades, fainting, smothering or sinking spells. The only reliable remedy that any one knows of is Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It has always cured when nothing else would even help. Read the remarkable statement of Mrs. Ingram:

"Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved my life and Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve saved me from insanity. I was very skeptical when began using them but my boy begged me to give them a fair trial and I bought three bottles of the Heart Cure and four of the Nerve. My heart fluttered so and I could hardly walk because from my knees to my feet my legs were terribly bloated in the afternoon. I suffered from terrible burning in my throat. The top of my head was sore, suffered pain in the small of my back. I lost my appetite and could not sleep. I suffered from pains in my left elbow, swelling under left arm, pain around my heart, shortness of breath and extreme nervous spells. My doctor gave me up but Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills cured me completely. My pains and palpitation are all gone and I am now enjoying good health. I cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Remedies and hope that others may experience the same benefit that I have."

Constipation Undermine Your Health.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.
When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue, just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC is a crushed fruit tonic-laxative which permanently cures the affliction. The tonic properties contained in the grape go into every afflicted tissue and creates strength and health. It will quickly restore lost flesh and make rich, red blood. As a laxative its action is immediate and positive, gentle and natural. Mull's Grape Tonic is guaranteed or money back.

SCORES OF LIVES LOST IN WRECK GIVE UP ALL HOPE FOR CREW

Barge Mabel Wilson Breaks Away
From the Disabled Vessel and Sues ceeds in Sailing Up the Lake to Amherstburg.

Detroit, Nov. 28.—In a furious southwest gale on Lake Erie the steamer Sylvanus J. Macy sprung a leak off Port Burwell, Ont., and plunged to the bottom, probably carrying her entire crew of twenty men with her. The barge Mabel Wilson, which was being towed by the Macy, broke away from the steamer in the darkness and succeeded in sailing up the lake to Amherstburg.

The first news of the disaster was reported by Capt. J. J. Anterson of the steamer Albright. She reported having passed through five miles of wreckage thirty miles southwest of Long Point, consisting of parts of the cabin, life preservers and doors of some vessel. The cabin was painted white, but there were no distinguishing marks to tell what vessel it was from. The arrival of the Wilson, however, leaves no doubt that the wreckage is from the Macy, as the last seen of that steamer, was in the near vicinity.

Fear All Are Lost.

The Macy, with the Wilson in tow, left Buffalo with a cargo of coal. When half way up Lake Erie the gale was encountered, and when abreast of Port Burwell the tow line of the barge was thrown off by the crew of the Macy, leaving the schooner to shift for herself. When last seen by the crew of the Wilson the Macy was laboring heavily in the sea and was evidently making for shelter. If the crew had time to leave the ship before the plunge to the bottom it is not believed that the small boats could have lived long in the terrible sea running. That nothing has been heard of them has convinced the owners that all are lost.

Partial List of Crew.

The only names of the crew obtainable at the office of the owners of the Macy are as follows: Capt. M. W. Gotham, — Gotham, F. Gregory, George Webb, John Nugent.

As the personnel of the crew of the steamer changes at nearly every port visited, a complete list is not available in the office. The crew of the Macy probably numbers twenty, as that is the number necessary to man a ship of her size.

The Macy was owned by P. J. Ralph & Co. of Detroit, and was insured for $16,500. She is one of the older type of wooden steamers. She registered 752 tons. She was built in 1881.

ENDS LIFE ON WEDDING DAY

Bridegroom-elect Shoots Himself at Time Appointed for Marriage.

Des Moines, Nov. 28.—Bert McNutt was to have been married to Miss Magdalena Guth, but failed to appear at the altar at the appointed time, and when his parents went to their home an hour later they found him dying. He had shot himself and died in three hours. He left a letter to his fiancée, protesting his affection for her, but not explaining the reasons for his suicide. His relatives believe he became mentally deranged in the contemplation of marriage without sufficient funds. The bride's family is prominent socially.

BOILING RIVER SPREADS RUIN

La Soufriere Fills Dry Bed With Flood
That Destroys Sugar Works.

Kingston, St. Vincent, Nov. 28.—La Soufriere's eruption occurred at the head of the dry river Rabacca, where a huge quantity of volcanic deposits had blocked the water course since the eruptions last May in spite of the subsequent heavy rainfall. After the latest eruption a raging, steaming torrent flowed from the base of La Soufriere and swept down the Rabacca, completing the destruction of the sugar works there. Sand at the same time fell on Georgetown and other places.

ARSENIC IS FOUND IN CANDY

Illness of Doctor and Assistant in San Francisco Due to Poison.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 28.—Chemical analysis of the candy which caused the illness of Dr. Mantley M. Enos of Oakland and his attendant, Miss Margaret Cooper, discloses the fact that it contained arsenic. Dr. Enos has no charges to make and declares that he is firmly of the opinion that the drugged candy was not intended for him or Miss Cooper. The case has been dropped.

MYSTERY IN DEATH OF A BOY

James Keller, Ten Years Old, Expires Suddenly in Evansville, Ind.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 28.—Mystery surrounds the sudden death of 10-year-old James Keller. It was thought at first that he had been struck a fatal blow by a colored boy and the latter was arrested, but later was released. Suspicion then veered toward possible poisoning and the boy's stomach was turned over to a chemist for analysis.

Better Than He Knew
A gentleman who had the gift of shaping a great many things out of orange peel was displaying his ability at a dinner party before Theodore Hook and Thomas Hill, and succeeded in counterfeiting a pig. Hill tried the same feat, and after destroying a dozen oranges and straining the table with the peel of them, gave it up with the exclamation: "Hang the pig! I can make the brute!" "You have done much better Hill," exclaimed Hook, glancing at the mess on the table; "instead of one pig you have made a litter."

The following is from Mahlin's Magazine and illustrates the effect of an untidy store or business: "I heard a gentleman say recently that he had gone to a particular store to buy a mended article. The store was recommended to him and he was convinced that it was the best place to buy the merchandise desired. When he entered the store there was such a shoddy tone to the entire establishment that he could not believe that the goods shown him were desirable."

In the average wages paid to employees the industry that stands highest among the large undertakings is that of smelting and refining. Here the average for 24,500 workers is $552 per worker.—Mahlin's Magazine.

Times of Need
"This bell," said a well-meaning sexton, when showing the belfry of an interesting village church to a party of visitors, "is only rung in case of fire, a flood, a visit from the lord bishop of the diocese, or any such calamities."—Tit-Bits.

Muscle

Does not make the man. "The blood is the life," the vital force of the body. So it not infrequently happens that the man who looks to be a picture of physical strength falls a sudden victim to disease.

A proper care for the blood would prevent many a serious sickness.

The cleansing of the blood is perfectly accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It drives out the impurities and poisonous substances which corrupt the blood and breed disease. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands, and so increases the supply of pure blood. It builds up the entire body with good sound flesh.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" does so to gain the little more profit paid by inferior medicines. There is nothing "just as good" for the blood as "Golden Medical Discovery" therefore accept no substitute.

"I took five bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' for my blood," writes Mr. William D. Shambly, of Reno, Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory. "I had 'ring worms' on me and I would burn them off and they would come right back, and they were on me when I commenced using 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and they went away and I haven't been bothered any more."
